

TIMBER HOUSE

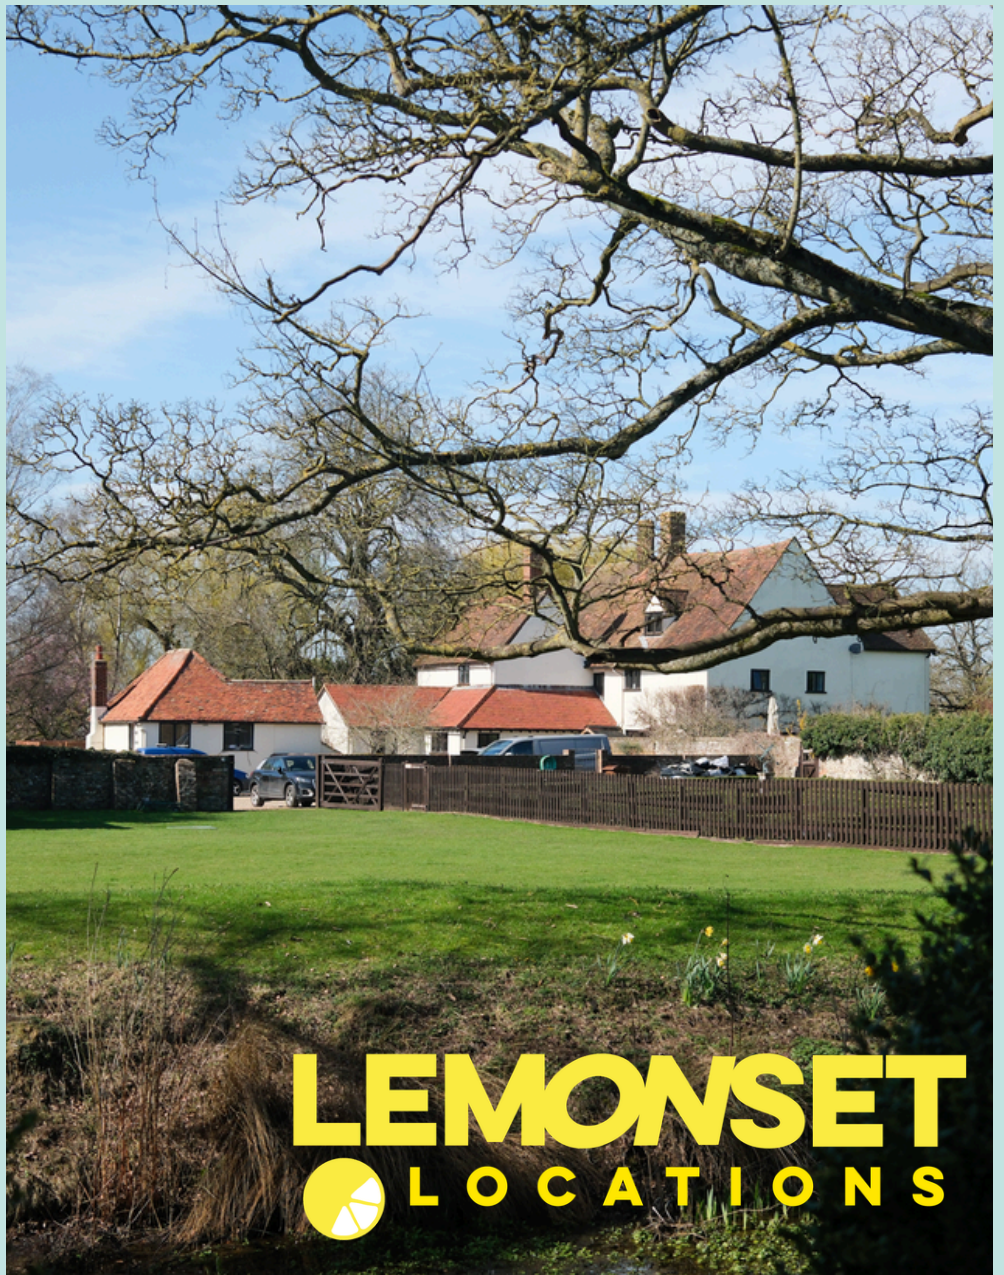

HERTFORDSHIRE, UK

Located in Hertfordshire with easy access a few minutes from the A1, Timber House is a diverse and an exceptional filming location, dating back to the 1500's and still full of its original charm. The House is Grade I listed and is easily transformed into a period accurate location. With 3 floors and 5 bedrooms alongside plenty of other spaces with many of it's original beams and stonework. The location is equipped with excellent facilities, and caters to the needs of film crews with ample space and convenient access. The enchanting atmosphere and rich history enhance its visual appeal alongside a vast array of different spaces and locations. See Timber Chapel and Timber Barn, also on the same site.
